Instructional Assistant: Mr. Lopez

"An optimist sees the opportunity in every difficulty"

—Winston Churchill

An Opportunity: Our staff is excited about continuing our Positive Behavior Intervention System (PBIS) for the second year this fall! This means you will have many opportunities at our school to not only earn credits towards graduation, but also be recognized (and rewarded) for your positive efforts and behavior.

You have an opportunity to get back on track; what will you do with it?

Bulldogs: Do the right thing  Own your actions  Give respect  Show pride

Classwork and Make-up Work:

- You are graded both on work completed and in-class participation (attend daily & be on time).
- You can complete/turn-in absent work on Google Classroom; one "absent" assignment=one day missed (max of 75% earned unless provided a doctor's note).

Technology:

- Each student is assigned a specific Chromebook # (small laptop) and BUSD gmail.
- Chromebooks are a privilege; they will be taken away if you abuse your privilege.
- Mr. Wommack & I use a program to monitor the websites you are on in class and we follow the same Chromebook/internet use policy (see page 3).

Classroom Rules:

- Follow school rules, inc. dress code; cell phones & headphones silenced & out of sight.
- You are responsible to charge your own cell phones at home.

Credit System:

- No homework.
- Earn your credits at a slightly faster rate; earn a credit & receive a "credit buck" with your current grade for each subject every 3 weeks or so.
- Can earn 1 elective credit for every AR book you read after completing a reading journal & paragraph writings, & passing a 10-question quiz.
